Sailpox in Frederick County.
In spite of the frantic efforts made by our neighbors, sailpox has actually appeared in Frederick county and at a point almost in the center of the county. A negro in Stephens City, according to the diagnosis of physicians acquainted with the disease, is now a victim of sailpox. Where he got it, and whence he brought it, is not known. The announcement has not caused even a ripple of excitement in Shenandoah. Our Board of Health will not be called together to issue proclamations against our neighbors, or to station pickets along Cedar Creek to keep the unfortunate at home. They give the Frederick county Board of Health the credit of knowing how to properly quarantine a case of sailpox and prevent the spread of the contagion. They will not quarantine against the residents of Middle own, or Pughtown, or even of Winchester, because there is a case of sailpox in Stephens City.
Shenandoah will be glad to extend any courtesies, in their power, to their friends who are unfortunate enough to live North of Cedar Creek.

Call on or write Mr. Magruder for rates, or anything you desire to know as to his method of insurance.

FIRE ALARM SOUNDS RIOT CALL.

RICHARD BROOKS ASSAULTS CHAS. LAUGHLIN AND GAINS FIRE ON MAYOR CHAPMAN AND CHIEF OF POLICE KOONTZ.

When the citizens of Woodstock sought their downy beds on Wednesday night, they little thought that before the break of day the town would experience excitement more thrilling than Emporia, Kansas, knew when Jesse James visited that hapless burg. At 1 o'clock A. M. the Shenandoah fire bell pealed on the cold night air, and hundreds of citizens dreading another conflagration rushed from their homes, clad in anything from pajamas to fur overcoats. No blaze being apparent, upon inquiry at the Engine house, it was learned that no fire existed but the pealing of the bell meant simply a riot call. Investigation disclosed the following facts. About 10:40 P. M. Wednesday night Charles Laughlin was attacked near the Delmonico Restaurant by Richard Brooks and Harry Roddefer, who proceeded to fix the face of Laughlin so that he would not be recognized without his card. Laughlin received several severe blows from a blunt instrument and a kick in the face by Roddefer, but discovering that his lungs were not injured he cried murder, which brought a rescuing party. The injured man procured a warrant from Mayor Chapman a short while afterwards which was placed in the hands of Chief of Police Koontz for execution. The Chief went after his man and came up with him on South Main street near the residence of Wm. R. Hill. When Brooks was told that he was under arrest he uttered an oath and attempted to strike the Chief with a club, but failing ran towards home. Koontz fired twice at the fugitive but the bullets went wide of the mark. Subsequently Mayor Chapman and his Chief of Police started to the home of Brooks, on the South edge of town, with the purpose of bringing him back. When within a hundred yards of the house, Brooks met them on his way back to town and upon being told to surrender he opened fire upon the Mayor and Chief of Police without effect, though he fired five shots. The Mayor and Chief returned the fire, emptying their guns. Ammunition of the officers being exhausted, the Mayor returned to town, leaving Chief Koontz to guard the house, to which Brooks had retreated.
His honor turned in the fire alarm with the results above stated. During the absence of Mr. Chapman, Brooks surrendered to Mr. West Hoshour who had been deputized as a special officer. He was brought to the city and lodged in the county jail to await a hearing before his honor on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, when he was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury for a suit with intent to kill. An additional warrant has been sworn out for Brooks for resisting and attempting to kill an officer. Mr. Roddefer has not, as yet, been apprehended.

Toy Pistols Kill 17.
Up to last Monday, seventeen boys had died in Norfolk, from wounds caused by toy pistols. Seven other persons wounded show symptoms of lockjaw and two are expected to die from that disease.
There have been 13 deaths in North Carolina from the same cause.
Richmond, Va., Jan. 5.—Richmond adds two more to the list of victims of lockjaw as the result of the Christmas toy pistols. The lads were Alfred and Eugene Edelblut, sons of George Edelblut. Alfred died about a week ago and his brother last night.
Both lads were slightly wounded by little blank-cartridge pistols. On account of the many fatalities from these blank-cartridge pistols Representative Edwards, in the House of Delegates, today offered a bill prohibiting the sale of firearms to minors under 16 years of age.
A number of these same toy pistols have been at Woodstock. It would be well for parents to destroy them wherever found. By so doing they may save the lives of some of their children.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness, and that is by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The Farmers Union.
The stockholders of the Farmers Union held a meeting last Saturday. W. C. Wisman was elected president, G. A. Boyer, vice president, and Geo. Santolero, secretary and treasurer.
A resolution was passed authorizing the Board of Directors to discontinue their store on E Main street, in Woodstock, and to continue the warehouse near the depot, for the sale of farmers' supplies.
A Board of Directors composed of one from each branch union was elected.

JUMBO.

A Good Recommendation.
"I have noticed that the sale of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call it "when again in need of such a remedy?" Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. For sale by L. R. Irwin, Druggist.

The discussion of the road question is very much like Pompey's dispute with his master. Pompey said "Massa and me had a big 'spute down in the corn field." "What was that Pompey?" "Why massa said squashes grow best in damp ground, and I said so too." Everybody seems to be on the same side of the good roads question. We will, however, find some who will oppose it; for there was never a good movement inaugurated, where there were no cranks to kick against it. We have them on the road question, but they have not yet come to the front.
